PRESIDENT'S CHAT

The wonderful spring weather reminds us it is picnic time and the annual Club Picnic will soon be here, so don't forget to sign up. The barbecue from C. B. Hannigans is always delicious and the games are a great time to renew old friendships and start a new one. This event is held at nearby Lake Cunningham Park with the buffet served at noon. You will find a reservation form below, and a map of the park on page 8. You must sign up in advance.

George Nale and his crew did a splendid job on the Pasta Fest. The food, wine and fun were enjoyed by over 150 retirees and friends. Thanks, George!!

Take time to review the great opportunities the club is offering you in this edition. There are so many enjoyable, informative and interesting activities that you will find something just to your liking. If you have a suggestion for a new activity, we welcome it.

There is an IBM Club web site available for IBM retirees. You must register to use it by entering an e-mail address and password.

www.ibm.com/ibm/ibmclub

After you sign in, click the "CA Bay Area" link.
The next page has offers for Great America,
Gilroy Gardens, 6 Flags Discovery King- dom and others. I could not get to most of the offers due to a technical problem at the web site. I believe it is another one of those IBM web sites where employees have success and retirees do not. Been there, done that.
Perhaps the problem will be fixed in the future. Check here again next month. Or, if you are computer person, try it yourself and send me an e-mail with your results.

This might be a problem only I have.

Par Tee Golf

- To see the full report, go online and look for "Par Tee Golf"

Laguna Seca – April 6, 2009: The "Shot(s)-Of-The-Day" go to Johnnie Smoot and Rich Hislip. On hole #17, a par three, Johnnie chipped his ball out of a greenside bunker and into the cup for "Birdie." On hole #18, a par four, Rich hit his tee shot very low, which struck a curb about forty yards in front of him. His ball bounced back about twenty yards to his left. So he hit his ball again, only this time he hit the curb with such velocity that it came right back at him, and luckily he jumped out of the way just in time! I asked him why he didn't yell "FORE" (what you're supposed to do when your ball is heading for someone else), and he said he was too busy trying to get out of his own way. Incidentally, his ball landed about forty yards "behind" him. So, he hit his "Blankety-Blank" ball again, only this time, it hit the cart path first, and just barely bounced over that same curb! Isn't playing golf "fun"? We had a nice turnout of 53 golfers. The format of play was "2 Best Ball Foursome." Here are the results:

Hikes

Sierra Azul – Mt. Umunhum Area Hike

Friday, May 29, 2009, 9:00 AM (note earlier start time)

On this hike, we will be exploring the Sierra Azul Open Space Preserve, close to Mt. Umunhum - once the site of Almaden Air Force Base. The 3,486-foot Mt. Umunhum was named for the Ohlone word for "resting place of the hummingbird." There is no physical access to the top of the mountain, but we'll be in the general area and there will be plenty to see. The hike will be about 6 miles and will require a car bridge. After parking at a lot on Mt. Umunhum Road, we'll ferry some of our cars to the start of the hike at the Bald Mountain trailhead and trek the 0.7 mile to the top. Then we'll turn around and come back down taking the Barlow and Woods trails. There is one steep hill but the hike is mostly downhill. We'll end up at the original parking lot. Since there is no appropriate place for lunch along the way, we'll eat back at the parking lot at the finish. So if you want to have a tailgate party after the hike, bring your lunch!

To get to our meeting place, take Almaden Expressway south and turn right at Old Almaden Road. Take Old Almaden Road for 4.5 miles (it is named Alamitos Road after 2.5 miles) and turn right on Hicks Road. Go 1.6 miles and turn left on Mt. Umunhum Road. The parking lot is immediately on the right. If you want to take a shorter but curvier route, get on Hicks Road off Camden Avenue. Go about 6 miles and turn right on Mt. Umunhum Road. We will meet at the parking lot at 9 AM. Wear hiking boots as part of the trail is quite gravelly. Bring plenty of water – none is available on the trail.

June's hike in Almaden Quicksilver Park on Friday, June 26, will be a moderately challenging 6 miler with a 700-foot elevation change. We'll meet at the Hacienda entry. More details in the June newsletter.
