PRESIDENT'S CHAT

I hope you are taking advantage of the long, hot days of summer to enjoy some of the interesting activities that are offered by the Retirement Club to explore both nearby cool spots and far away exotic places. A great variety is offered. If you have an idea for a trip, please let us know about it so that we can investigate a new and exciting adventure.

Mark your calendar for the Annual Meeting which will be held at the Old Almaden Winery Community Center, 5730 Chambertin Drive, 95118, off Blossom Hill Road, the same location as last year. The guest speaker this year will be the CEO of Silicon Valley Leadership Group, Carl Guardino. It will be interesting to hear the vision of this important group in our valley. The meeting will be Tuesday, October 13, 2009, at 2:00 PM and there will be refreshments.

George Walker, President

The photos above show some of the new San Jose public park areas located on the old IBM Cottle Road plant site. They are all open for use. The roads are all new, along with the traffic signals, sidewalks and parking strip landscaping. There is a lot of open land just waiting to be developed. It currently contains weeds.

The details of the Imperial Cities Tour, which includes the famous Passion Play of Oberammergau, have been released. The cost is now $5159, including air. We will tour Budapest, Hungary, enjoy a Hungarian horse show, visit a lovely wine town and enjoy a Renaissance-style dinner. Adopt-A-Highway

On Thursday, June 11, twelve volunteers were greeted with warm donuts brought by Nick Clason, who has been on sick leave (chemo) from the litter wars. Our inspired litter warriors filled 18 bags (2,434 to date). Upon returning from the 85N battlefield, our heroes were treated to home-baked muffins from Barbara Pugh and Pat Motta, and fresh bing cherries purchased with our "road kill" money fund.

Our newest recruit, Chuck Jackson, made his debut and was teamed with veteran Walt Cole. His quote: "Awesome! I couldn't have done it without Walt (his trash mentor)." Walt found tennis and whiffle balls. Chuck found a paycheck stub and 26 cents.

Marge Condensa found a machete box and two shed reptile skins. This is the Almaden off ramp, folks -- lots of wild life there. We have found a dead deer, a homeless camp, and a possum baby in this area.

Donna & Bob Courtney and Barbara Warner speculated that litterers are leading healthier lives! Instead of beer containers and fast food drink cups, Donna found lots of water bottles. Barbara found health and energy bar wrappers and 14 straws. Bob noted that they seem to participate in sports...his find, 2 tennis balls, 2 soccer balls, 1 baseball. This theory was validated by Howard Hansen who said, "I found three baseballs and so many tennis balls that I couldn't catch them all." Many of our crew had a ball that day.
