Rancho Canada-West June 4, 2012. As the song goes, "Sometimes the rain comes down in June" and for the first time in 13 years of my running these golf tournaments, we got rained out after we started playing! It started as a very light drizzle. When we got to the 10th tee, it started to come down pretty steady. Everyone was quitting except for one diehard foursome (Mel Rodinsky, Pat Boyd, Mike McElvy & Jorge Gonzalez). So, we decided to call the tournament off. We had a nice turnout of 56 golfers. The format was supposed to be "Two-Best-Ball-Foursome". To be equally fair to everyone who signed up, we decided to have a drawing to determine the team winners. This was done at my SIRS Meeting on June 14th. The people that drew the team numbers and places were Frank Wilson, Jim Stonehouse & Ray Mesa and two other SIRS members, observing. Here are the results:

Place/Score
