Rancho Canada-West June 1, 2015. The Story-Of-The-Day goes to Denise Giffin. It seems that Denise developed the uncanny ability to hit trees on almost every hole on the course. Now, it has always been the presumption that golfers are under the impression that when a golf ball is headed towards a tree, it is almost a known fact that trees are “90 % air”, and a golf ball should sail right through without hitting anything solid! Well, much to her dismay, Denise disapproved that theory. However, she vowed to make an adjustment! She said she will replace one of her clubs with a chainsaw! And, if any tree messes with her, she will take the necessary action to realign the “Laws of the Universe” back to their gravitational pull, which should return her misdirected golf balls to the center of the fairway! So, all of you trees out there, consider this fair warning.....BEWARE! Denise means business! We had a turnout of 40 golfers. The format was Two-Best-Ball-Foursome.
